Mary Pickford in Novel Film Version of Cinderella, Latest Famous Players Paramount Feature.

Tomorrow at the Auditorium Mary Pickford, the most popular motion pic-ture star in the world, returns to the screen on the Famous Players-Paramount programme in a four-part mod-ern and original film version of the entury old classic Cinderella

In the exquisitely fanciful fairy tale, arranged from the beautifully symbolic story, Mary Pickford portrays the pa-thetic but bewitching little cinder girl, the heroine of the world renowned and universaly loved tale of the abused step-sister who was at last rewarded for her virtue and patience by a splen-did triumph over the haughty sisters and unkind step-mother, and crowned princess and sovereign of her true love's heart.

This new and modern version of Cinderella is a delightful blend of comedy and pathos, and provides a consummately artistic treat for people of all ages. In the imposing and elaborate production, illusion and reality are skilfully mingled, and the famous little heroine of the children of all sime lives and breathes upon the screen, immortal there as in their hearts, with a tender charm that is all

Mary Pickford's own.

The varying vicissitudes of Cinder-ella's life, with her many sorrows and her great triumph, are depicted with a fascinating degree of realism, and the Inspiring episodes of the beloved tale re dramatically and picturesquely de-eloped in this most charming and unique of fairy photoplays, just as they are chronicled in the beautiful story that is its origin. story that is its origin.

SEATS ON SALE THIS MORNING. For Some Baby, at the Davis Theatre nursday, Aug. 12th.

At-the Davis theatre Thursday, Aug. 17th, the estate of Henry B. Harris will present Some Baby, a new three-act farce by Zellah Covington and Jules Simonson, revised and staged by Percival Knight. Some Baby deals with the supposed discovery of the real clixir of youth by an old scientist who, like Ponce de Leon, has set out to find the universal Leon, has set out to find the universal restorer. The application of this elixir to an old general and to the scientist's young daughter is followed by so many remarkable happenings that the amazed old professor is warranted in believing that his compound is indeed working wonders—wonders that at times threaten to land him and his young assistant in deepest trouble and that assistant in deepest trouble and that involve the love affairs of the professor's family and friends until at the very end all the knots are untied and the professor finds that if he hasn't actually found the real elixir of youth the has nevertheless found the actually found the real elixir of youth the has nevertheless found the means to fortune and fame. Through the mase of ingenious comedy situations run two romances so that Some Baby is a dramatic elixir composed of love and laughter, spiced with a dash of danger, and making what is promised danger, and making what is promised to be a most seductive potion.

Some Baby will be presented with "some cast"—Frank Lalor, who leaves musical comedy to create the role of the old scientist; Francine Larrimore, Jessie Ralph, Ernest Stallard, Sam Edwards, John Arthur, Beth Franklin, Sara Biala, Gilbert Clayton and Robert W. Lawrence.

most beautiful serial ever made fully lived up to.

The Broken Train, and incident in The Hazards of Helen, is the most thrilling thing on the programme, for Helen, pursuing two crooks who have boarded a freight with stolen gems, arrives at a crossing on a speed auto, where the train breaks in two parts, and she dashes through the break at the risk of her life, and, driving at a fearful rate alongside two flat cars, dumps from the machine and is successful in making a landing and, running the length of the train, notifies the engineer, who is enabled to capture the gems and crooks.

Other splendid features for today are Hearst-Selig Weekly, Blindfolded, two-reel Besanay with Nell Craig, and The Starring of Flora-Finchurch, a Vitagraph comedy.

Captain Hayes wore the smile that won't come off yesterday as he gave out the lineup of the team he expects to put on Lincoln park diamond Wednesday. Here it is: Denny Murphy, pitch; C. V. Pendleton, Jr., catch; Jupiter McIntyre, first base; Denny Hayes, second base; Jack (Red) Young, third base; Jack Harrington, shortstop; Dan Young, tat field; John T. There will be 65 substitutes and some of these will get a chance, probably, before 12 innings are over.

The cabaret people, seven in all, are here, ready to put on seven acts, the kind they have been giving in New York for big crowds all summer. Thomas H. Crawford was the man that picked the stage stuff, and he thinks he has something that will drive even the model show of 1914 to the tall timber.

The tug of war will have four teams. The Norwich team, with Val Euppert for captain, is pulling strong in practice every night. The William tic team, under Tom Folay, is heavy, and the Jewett City team, with William E. Brickley for captain, works pretty good pretty goo Brickley for captain, books pretty good to the Elks of the borough, and the Mike McCarthy team from Westerly has two or three rugged quarrymen that ought to give a good account of themselves. D. J. Clifford, formerly of this city, now exalted ruler of Bridgeport lodge, has been invited, and may bring some Park City brothers with him. The New Haven delegation will have Thomas H. Galligan for their guide. He could not get to the frolic last year and George Remington Bartlett, of Bartlett's Elks' band, in Willimantic, missed him. The Bartlett aggregation will come to town early and play in the business district, the way they did last year. Jack Wilson's Scotch band, now rehearsing nightly, is all right.

The fat men's race will be fought by Oscar H. Maine of Norwich, G. R. Bartlett of Willimantic and Charles L. Tracy of Norwich, all 1914 rivals, with last year. Jack Wilson's Scotch band, now rehearsing nightly, is all right.

The fat men's race will be fought by Oscar H. Maine of Norwich, G. R. Bartlett of Willimantic and Charles L. Tracy of Norwich, all 1914 rivals, with the possibility of a dark horse or two from outside. Sheriff Charles A. Gates of Windham county, who was entertained by Tracy last year, is hopeful that the Norwich man, for all he weighs 287, will get there. Maine will start at 285 and Bartlett at 255, same as last year.

The greased pig is training, in seclusion, and will be ready to run for his life Wednesday. The entry list for the pig race is large. In the 100 yard dash, Tony Bernard and "Jupes" McIntyre, who were only a foot apart last time, will have it out. The McCormick-Larsen special arouses tremendous interest. It is expected a new record for men over 50 will be made by the winner.

Hartford will send quite a party, and so will New Haven. Westerly will send more than one carload. New London, as usual, will be heavily represented. Providence and Woonsocket Elks want to see how the Connecticut cooks handle a Rhode Island clambake, and several of them will be here. The gates will be open at 10, to close when the last man has had shis last minute's fun. The politicians will get around as usual, but, this being, an off year, the big fellows with eyes fixed on a state ticket job will not be in evidence so much. The C. K. tract properly assimilates the food you eat.

There is a preparation known to reliable druggists almost everywhers, which seemingly embodies the missing elements needed by the digestive organs to help them convert food into rich, fat-laden blood. This preparation is called Sargol and much remarkable testimony is given as to its successful use in flesh building. Sargol, which comes in the form of a small non-infurious tablet, taken at meals and mixing with the digesting food, tends to prepare its fat, flesh and muscle building elements so that the blood can readily accept and carry them to the starved portions of the body. You can readily picture the transformation that additional and previously lacking flesh making material should bring with your cheeks filling out, hollows about your neck, shoulders and bust disappearing and your taking on from 10 to 30 pounds of solid, healthy flesh. Bargol is harmless, inexpensive, efficient. Lee & Osgood and other loading druggists of this vicinity have it and are authorized to refund your mency it weight increase is not obtained as per the guarantee found in each large package.

NOTE:—Sargol is recommended only as a flesh builder and while excellent results in cases of nervous indigestion, etc., have been reported, care should be taken about using it unless a gain of weight is desired.

Thin Men and Women DO YOU WANT TO GET FAT AND

The trouble with most thin folks who wish to gain weight is that they invist on drugging their stomach or stuffing it with greasy foods; rubbing on useless "flesh creama," or following some foolish physical culture stunt, while the real cause of thinness goes untouched. You cannot get fat until your discative tract properly assimilates the food you cat.
